

I am very happy with my ISP as it is and I'm not interested in having limits placed on ISP providers that would increase my costs or force me to switch to a large monopoly in order to contain costs. I would like the choice to be mine and I would like to have more than one choice.